

I have enjoyed XM radio for more than a year and enjoy the many opportunities to listen to a variety of programming, especially the weather channels when I am on long trips. It would be against my first ammendment rights to not be able to listen to what XM has to offer. Please permit me to enjoy XM radio. Thank you